Q13. If my scholarships application was unsuccessful, what other financial aid option do I have?

No.

Q14. Is it possible for me to apply for more than one scholarship?

You may apply for Graduate Research Assistantship subject to the availability of grants by your Principal Supervisor.

Q15. Is it possible for me to apply for admission to the university and a scholarship at the same time?

You may apply for more than one scholarship if you meet the eligibility criteria of each scholarship. However, only one scholarship will be offered subject to the decision of the approving committee and availability of the scholarship.

Q16. Is it possible for me to apply for a scholarship if I hold a conditional offer?

Yes, you may submit the admission form and scholarship application form at the same time.

However, scholarship application will be processed upon confirmation of admission into the Postgraduate Programmes (Research) that you have applied for.

Q17. When should I submit my application to study at the University in order to allow sufficient time to apply for a scholarship?

No.

Q18. If I change my course of study will it affect my scholarship application?

If you change your course of study after you were being offered a scholarship, the scholarship awarded will become void. You need to apply and go through the process again for the new programme applied.
